Crest Trail Workshops Scheduled

Reserve
The Oregon and Washington sub-groups of the Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail Advisory Council will hold workshops in late January and early February to discuss the comprehensive plan being developed for the trail by the Forest Service.

Purpose of the one-day sessions will be to help formulate issues and concerns to be addressed in the plan. The Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail extends from Canada to Mexico, through the states of Washington, Oregon, and California.

The Washington members of the advisory council will meet in Anderson Hall on the University of Washington campus in Seattle, beginning at 9 a.m., January 31. The Oregon members will meet at 9 a.m., in room 690 of the Multnomah Building, 319 S.W. Pine St., Portland, February 8.

Persons interested in contributing information or comments on the comprehensive plan but who are unable to attend the sessions, may write the Regional Forester, Pacific Northwest Region, P.O. Box 3623, Portland, Oregon 97208.
